STAR WARS

IMPERIAL ASSAULT

CAPTAIN TERRO, WASTELAND ENFORCER

This pack provides the Captain Terro, Wasteland Enforcer plastic figure that can be used when playing a mission. It also includes an alternate rider that can be used to form the Dewback Rider. The other components in this expansion are incorporated as follows:

- Add the Deployment, Command, and Condition cards to their supplies.
- If you own the Jabba's Realm expansion, the Imperial player can choose the "Wasteland Patrol" Agenda set when building his Agenda deck at the start of a campaign.
- If you own the Jabba's Realm expansion, shuffle the Skirmish Mission cards into the Skirmish Mission deck. These cards use the "Endor Defense Station" map (see below).

COMPONENT LIMITATIONS

In a campaign, players are limited to the number of Deployment cards included in this expansion. Therefore, the Imperial player is limited to one Dewback Rider group, regardless of how many copies of this expansion he owns.

SKIRMISH ATTACHMENTS

Some skirmish upgrade Deployment cards list the word "Attachment" above their abilities. These cards can be attached to other Deployment cards as follows:

- When deploying units during skirmish setup, if a player has one or more "Attachment" cards included in his army, he places each of these cards on one of his non-upgrade Deployment cards.
- Each Deployment card can have only one "Attachment."
- Abilities on "Attachment" cards apply to all figures in the corresponding group.
- Many attachments require the group to have a specific trait, such as "Trooper." Attachments with these restrictions cannot be played on a group that does not have the trait.

When a group with an "Attachment" card is defeated, the opposing player scores VPs equal to the deployment cost of the "Attachment" card in addition to the VPs he scores from the defeated group's Deployment card.

NEUTRAL DEPLOYMENT CARDS

Deployment cards with a Neutral Icon and card back do not belong to an affiliation. When creating an army for a skirmish, a player may choose to include Neutral Deployment cards as if they belonged to his affiliation. Neutral Deployment cards cannot be used in a campaign.

- Captain Terro defeated or all heroes wounded: End of Mission

MISSION BRIEFING

You arrive at Anchorhead near dusk. Imperial forces have held the town for weeks. You must find and defeat Captain Terro to free the city from his martial law.

Alliance intel warns you that Terro is most dangerous when flanked by his personal security force. These warnings aren't to be taken lightly, but you must press forward, no matter the danger.

You encounter a patrol harassing civilians. With no provocation, a trooper starts firing in the streets. Unwilling to watch, you intervene.

- Doors are locked.
- The Dewback Rider cannot be redeployed once defeated.
- A Rebel figure can interact with the terminal to discard it.
- When the Dewback Rider is defeated and the terminal is discarded, open all doors.
- The mission progresses when the doors open (⚙). The mission ends at the end of Round 6 or when all heroes are wounded.

TAKE ON THE CAVALRY

When the doors open:

"I was wondering how long it would take for you Rebel filth to show up." Terro laughs as he turns his dewback to face you. "Come on then." He calls to his men, "Blasters up, boys!"

- Deploy the reserved Captain Terro to the red point.
- Apply additional Health to Captain Terro equal to twice the threat level.
- Deploy 1 reserved Stormtrooper group to each yellow point.
- Whenever a Stormtrooper group resolves an activation, the Imperial player may ready Captain Terro's deployment card.
- The mission ends when Captain Terro is defeated.

END OF MISSION

When Captain Terro is defeated:

Terro curses as he's forced to retreat. It's unclear whether he's more upset with you, or with the failure of his own men.

It will take time for Anchorhead to return to normal, but the healing can begin.

- Heroes receive 100 credits per hero.

At the end of Round 6 or when all heroes are wounded:

"Was that the best the Alliance could send?" Terro mocks as you flee from your failed coup. Having inadvertently reinforced his reign of fear, you worry for the future of Anchorhead.

- The Imperial player receives Captain Terro (Wasteland Enforcer) as a villain.

ADDITIONAL REWARDS

- Each player receives 1 XP. Heroes receive 100 credits per hero. The Imperial player receives 1 influence.
